May 20, 2023	8	8	Pulo NHS	Intermediate students	Marinig South E/S

A group of sixteen talented young journalists from Marinig South Elementary School enthusiastically participated in the highly anticipated 2023 Division Schools Press Conference. This prestigious event took place on May 20, 2023, at the esteemed venue of Pulo National High School. The conference revolved around the captivating theme of "From Campus Journalism to Real-World Journalism: Shaping Minds from Schools to Societies." The students, accompanied by their dedicated coaches, had the unique opportunity to showcase their exceptional writing skills and journalistic prowess. This enriching experience not only nurtured their passion for journalism but also encouraged them to excel in their craft and contribute meaningfully to the field of journalism within their schools and society at large.
